Joon Park Student Leadership Experience & Academic Scholarship Award

The successful candidate will receive a scholarship award of $1000.00. The JPSLE Award provides an IUB undergraduate student the opportunity to use the funds toward:

- attending a conference or workshop focused on community engagement or community advocacy
- attending an academic conference or professional development workshop

Special preference will be given to an undergraduate student who has been invited to present his/her work at a conference. Preference will also be given to an undergraduate student who has shown leadership experience on campus. There will be one recipient each academic year. Past recipients will be ineligible to apply again. If interested, please email acc@indiana.edu for more details.

Eligibility:

Applicants must complete the IU Joon Park Student Leadership Experience Scholarship application form that is available at the IU Asian Culture Center or online at www.asianresource.indiana.edu. Along with this form, the applicant must also submit the following information via PDF to acc@indiana.edu:

- name, location, and dates of conference
- a copy of the conference or invitation to attend or present at the conference
- title of presentation (if applicable)
- a short summary of his/her article (if applicable)
- budget for travel expenses (include: food and lodging, registration fees & materials, transportation, and other sources of travel funding).
- name of IU faculty recommender. An applicant must also ask an IU faculty member familiar with his/her work to write a letter endorsing the award request. That letter should also be sent to the email address above.

Selection Process and Deadline:

Students who wish to be considered must submit their application on or before December 15, 2022. The award is valid for a conference or workshop taking place in the 2023 calendar year (January 1 – December 31, 2023).

All application forms will be reviewed by a committee. The successful applicant will be notified within on month after the deadline.
